NO CHILD LEFT BEHIND

Our policy is that every child is welcome to attend our summer camp for FREE. Our commitment is to ensure every kid can come to camp. If you can contribute to cover the cost for your child/children or to cover the cost for someone else's child/children, we welcome your generosity as we rely on donations and gifts.

From his rich background as a children's pastor, youth pastor, senior pastor, professional artist, father of ten and husband of one, Joe draws from a variety of ventriloquist characters and artistic methods to communicate his message with a unique diversity.

It has been said that one of Joe's most amazing gifts is his ability to appeal to all people regardless of age, educational background, or economic status. His quick wit and clever characters will be sure to bring a message every child needs to hear.

Your children will meet all the characters of "Joe's Garage" where they will work on character issues including honesty, respect, forgiveness, and kindness. Joe will also present real-life, concerns from God's Word. This may be just what your child needs to help them prepare for the life God has for them.

ALSO: New Life Drama Company

New Life Drama Co. is a group of dynamic young adults who minister through the arts across the nation. They will be participating in our morning and evening meetings and be active as youth mentors and assisting with our small group events.

They have been in the area before and we are thrilled to have them return.

Midwest Bible Camp

With the safety of our campers in mind, we utilize the training and certification processes from the Safeguard from Abuse program. Each of our staff, including Camp Counselors must complete the training and adhere to strict guidelines. We require two adult counselors per cabin with a 1/8 counselor/camper ratio. Like gender requirements are adhered to in our cabins and restrooms.

Our Purpose: The Midwest Bible Camp and Conference Center is to provide an interdenominational, Christian environment of biblical teaching and recreational activities which instill godly values and characters within children, youth and families. Our facilities are available for family and group celebrations, special events, and outreaches which would serve as betterment for our community and surrounding area. Our programs exist to present the Good News about the wonderful grace of God; make available the means for individuals to experience such grace through acceptance of salvation that comes through faith in Jesus Christ; and, provide a positive experience with others of like faith so that they may become mature disciples of Jesus.
