Agreements and Permissions

Midwest Bible Camp provides a Christian Camp experience. All campers are included in worship, prayers, devotions, Bible study, and every other activity at camp, regardless of their religious background. Staff members are expected to participate in leading campers in these Christian faith practices and, in addition, staff are to live exemplary Christian lives before the campers, parents, other visitors, and other staff alike. In applying for a staff position, you subscribe to high moral, ethical, and spiritual goals, and give assurance that you will strive to direct your campers in building practical faith in Jesus Christ for themselves.

Staff are expected to:

1. Take the Safeguard from Abuse Certification Training. (Paid for by Midwest Bible Camp.)
2. Share their faith through Christian example and word with staff and campers.
3. Enter into the staff position with a positive and supportive attitude and as an ally to other staff.
4. Place campers and other staff ahead of personal wants and desires.

Applicant Agreement:

- Midwest Bible Camp prohibits the use of alcohol, tobacco, and illegal drugs on the grounds.
- Foul language is also prohibited.
- Cell phones, MP3 devices and other electronics are prohibited from use without the prior consent of the designated camp director or the camp counselors. Campers may keep their cell phones, but texting and phoning friends is not allowed. Contacting parents or guardians will be permitted, upon notification of a counselor of the designated camp director
